

VS1-6(1 to 54)

Across

3. One who is eternally pure
6. One who cannot be perceived
10. One with an extremely pure essence
12. Who is the universe himself
15. One who gives everything to his devotees
16. The pillar, the immovable truth
19. One who governs the entire living world
21. One who manifests from Himself
22. Indestructible
23. One who is always with shree
27. One who has manifested as the Vedic mantras
28. The Almighty Lord

Down

1. The Lord of future
2. The creator of all creatures
4. The cause of the growth and birth of all creatures
5. The subtlest atom
7. One who has a thundering voice
8. The final goal, reached by liberated souls
9. One who supports all fields of experience
11. One without origin or end
13. The Supreme Controller, best among the purushas
14. The imperishable treasure
17. One who becomes all moving and nonmoving things

30. The atman of all beings
33. The supremely gross
35. One whose form is man-lion
37. One who brings auspiciousness
40. The Supersoul
41. The Lord of past
42. The ancient, motionless one
44. The creator of the universe
46. One who is realized through yoga
47. One who nourishes all creatures
48. The womb of the five great elements
50. Without destruction
52. The Lord of present
53. One who has eyes like the lotus
54. The knower of the field
55. He who is the lord of nature and beings
56. The auspicious

18. The Lord of the devas
20. One who is everything
24. One who can do anything without any help
25. One who is manifestation of a soul
26. One from whose navel comes the lotus
29. The Lord of the senses
31. One who is invoked for oblations
32. One who pervades everywhere
34. The witness
36. The son of Aditi (Vaamana)
38. One who has beautiful locks of hair, slayer of Keshi and one who is himself the three
39. The guide of those who know yoga
43. One who makes huge things small
45. The cause of the five great elements
49. The dispenser of fruits of action
51. One who descends of His own free will